

Income from?

The character Jamie in Skint! is given various choices about income sources.

Ask your group to write (or tell) a sequel about what could happen to Jamie, linked to one of the choices below. In each instance list all of the positive outcomes or possible pitfalls that may result or add drama and intrigue.

In a follow-up session encourage the group to share their sequels, so they can compare and contrast what they think would happen if:

1. Jamie takes Brian's advice and sets up his own business and it gets off to a good start until
2. Jamie takes Pavel's job offer at the pub and starts to do a couple of shifts a week until he's earning enough to pay his taxes, but while he is working there he discovers
3. Jamie follows Tam's series of tips on the horses and it leads to
4. Jamie discovers further training options at college and embarks on a welding course to further expand his car mechanic skills – he has to take out a student loan to pay for his studies and it leads him to meet

To expand this activity, stories can be swapped and contrasting pitfalls or positive outcomes added, taking the sequel in the opposite direction. These can then be shared and discussed further.
