Read our eligibility criteria to find out more about who can apply for Live Literature support.

Please note that

- fields marked with * are mandatory
- by submitting this application you confirm that you have read and, if successful, agree to the terms and conditions of this funding
- we will get back to you within six weeks of the application deadline

Get in touch

If you have any questions or comments please email live.literature@scottishbooktrust.com or call us on 0131 524 0160.

Confirm eligibility

- Please confirm that if successful, you agree to return our evaluation survey within six weeks of your final session* Tick to agree.

- Will any of the events be in a school or for school / nursery pupils?*

Yes and this will be free No, not this type of event

- Will you be holding any other type of events (ie not in a school nor with school / nursery pupils)?*

Yes, and if there is a charge it will be for no more than £5.

No, not this type of event

How many sessions are you applying for?*

What is the title of your project?* (70 characters max)

About You*

Please tell us what organisation you are applying from and a few basic details about your organisation. Please be brief and use your own words. (max 700 characters)

About what you want to do*

Please give us a list of the sessions you want us to part-fund. For each session you are applying for, tell us: (1) what the session is, (2) who it will reach/who will be in the audience, (3) what month you intend it to happen. Example 1: World Book Day, reading by author, P4 pupils, March. Example 2: Halloween themed creative writing workshop about horror, adults in the community, October. If a session repeats, put x2 or (2) etc. so this is clear. The total should match the number of sessions you are applying for (no character limit).

Tell Us Why*

Why do you want to run these sessions? How will these sessions encourage people to read and write for pleasure? Be clear, brief and specific to your events. (max 2050 characters)

Who benefits*

If your events include or intend to reach vulnerable people, including young people, how will you ensure their safety and wellbeing?
