

Read, Write, Count worksheet

Draw your own postcard

Think of a place you have been or a place you would like to visit. Draw a picture of this special place.

On the blue lines write a special message for the person who will receive your postcard.

On the red lines write the name and address of the person to whom you will send your postcard.
