

What's In A Name?

Discussion questions

1. Think about your first name. Do you know why you were given that name, or what it means?
2. What about your second name? Where does it come from? Is it a common name?
3. What do you think your name tells people about you?

Follow-up discussion (facilitate discussion around these questions after the learners have completed the activities)

1. What surprised you about the characters other people in your group liked? Why?
2. What surprised you about the characters other people in your group didn't like? Why?
3. Were there any similarities between other people's choices and your own?
4. In what ways might this change your first impressions of new people?
