

Walk The Walk – Then and Now

Interview someone who lives in Scotland, but who is of a different age (generation) to you (a member of your family or local community). Focus on community and tradition – both theirs and yours!

Sample interview questions

These questions should give you some ideas about what to ask your interviewee. However, feel free to make up questions of your own, too.

1. Where in Scotland do you live, and is that where you are from originally?

.....
.....

2. What do you like about your local community?

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

3. Is there anything you don't like?

.....
.....
.....
.....

4. What local or Scottish traditions did you see as a child, or when you were growing up?

.....
.....
.....
.....

5. Do those traditions still exist?

.....
.....
.....
.....

6. What local or Scottish traditions do you see now?

.....
.....
.....
.....

7. What positive things come out of observing and celebrating traditions?

.....
.....
.....

8. Are there any negative things that can come out of it, do you think?

.....
.....
.....
.....

9. How do you think life in Scotland has improved in your lifetime so far?

.....
.....
.....
.....

10. If you could change one thing about life in Scotland, what would it be?

.....
.....

.....
.....

Add your own questions here

11.....
.....
.....
.....

12.....
.....
.....
.....

When you have completed your interview:

Go to our interactive Google Map and add the traditions you know of from your local area, as well as any you found out about from your interviewee. You can find the map at:

www.scottishbooktrust.com/walkthewalk