

5. Then and Now

Discussion

1. What do you think of Gran's story? Do the things she describes reflect your own experience of living in Scotland?
2. How do you think things have changed for the better since Gran's mother came to Scotland?
3. Do you think there are things we could still work together to improve when it comes to tackling sectarianism in Scotland?
4. What are Scotland's national, local and community traditions? What traditions exist in your local area?

Follow-up discussion (facilitate discussion around these questions after the learners have completed the activities)

1. Was there anything that your interviewee said that surprised you? Why?
2. What images or aspects of life in Scotland came up in your interview?
3. In what ways are your life and experiences similar to those of your interviewee? In what ways are they different?
4. Did anything your interviewee said make you think differently about your own life and experiences, or about your local traditions?
